What is the ATA?

ATA is an independent, financially strong well resourced industry body representing and servicing Australian industries specialising in products for children & family leisure, learning and entertainment.

ATA Members include manufacturers, distributors, importers, retailers, agents and licensors. The ATA membership accounts for the vast majority of total industry sales in Australia.

ATA has its roots in the toy industry, having been incorporated as the Australian Toy Association Limited in 1983, previously having been the Toy and Games Manufacturers of Australia (TAGMA).

Today ATA's Members are involved in a large variety of children's products ranging across toys, hobbies, nursery, clothing, confectionary, games (board, electronic & video), CDs, books, collectibles, car safety, furniture, sports, lifestyle & licensed products.

This reflects the increasing diversification of ATA's membership as they develop to meet the changing needs of a quickly evolving society.

Also while children's products are the initial focus, this often diversifies into the wider lifestyle & licensed product ranges for adults.

ATA has a major objective of delivering information and services that extend the performance of its industry sectors as they serve the changing needs of the consumer - at an individual level, a national level and as a global industry.
