What is the ATA?

ATA is an independent, financially strong well resourced industry body representing and servicing Australian industries specialising in products for children & family leisure, learning and entertainment.

ATA Members include manufacturers, distributors, importers, retailers, agents and licensors. The ATA membership accounts for the vast majority of total industry sales in Australia.

ATA has its roots in the toy industry, having been incorporated as the Australian Toy Association Limited in 1983, previously having been the Toy and Games Manufacturers of Australia (TAGMA).

Today ATA's Members are involved in a large variety of children's products ranging across toys, hobbies, nursery, clothing, confectionary, games (board, electronic & video), CDs, books, collectibles, car safety, furniture, sports, lifestyle & licensed products.

This reflects the increasing diversification of ATA's membership as they develop to meet the changing needs of a quickly evolving society.

Also while children's products are the initial focus, this often diversifies into the wider lifestyle & licensed product ranges for adults.

ATA has a major objective of delivering information and services that extend the performance of its industry sectors as they serve the changing needs of the consumer - at an individual level, a national level and as a global industry.

Benefits of Membership include:

Annual Trade Fairs

The Australian Toy Hobby and Licensing Fair is held annually in Melbourne in March. With over 5,000 passes going through our doors, this really is the premier event of our industry and completes the circuit of worldwide trade Fairs.

The Sydney Mid-Year Fair is also held annually and exhibiting at this Fair is open to ATA members only. Taking place at the end of June / beginning of July, the event provides members with an extra opportunity to display their product to the market.

Safety & Standards

ATA Members are well represented in this arena. The ATA considers one of its most important duties is the promotion of the highest possible standards of safety in design and manufacture of children's products.

The ATA works closely with regulatory authorities Federal and State on all issues of safety and standards and through this involvement ATA members are recognised as having a prime responsibility and commitment.

We keep members informed about developments and alerts in respect of Safety & Standards in both Australia and New Zealand.

The ATA is also a key participant in the ongoing development of the ISO Global Toy Standard (aligning standards worldwide) and with the Global Issues Taskforce within the International Council of Toy Industries (ICTI).

We offer members a free Compliance query service as well as access to the Compliance Analyser tool which was developed to simplify the determination of requirements applicable to specific products.

Representation

ATA Members' interests are represented by the ATA on several levels addressing issues and commercial problems that could have a profound effect on your business.

Nationally, the ATA monitors government regulation and participates in submissions on relevant issues.

The ATA is involved in a variety of business forums representing the views of its industry sectors.

Federal & State Governments and authorities also recognise the ATA as the first port of call on issues relating to toys and children's products.

The toy industry operates in an increasingly global marketplace. Therefore global issues have an affect on your business. The ATA is a member of the International Council of Toy Industries (ICTI) and the Asian Council of Toy Industries (ACTI).

The ATA actively participates in these forums on your behalf.

Value of Play

The ATA is dedicated to promoting the Value of Play (VOP) to the industry and community at large. Play is essential for the healthy development of children cognitively, emotionally and physically. Our website and social media channels communicate this message and our objective is to be the first point of contact for media on behalf of our members, for all things play.

Logo Identification

The ATA logo is the recognised industry symbol. Its effective use provides Members with tangible evidence of their industry participation. Members are provided with a decal to use at their place of business and also have access to an electronic version for use on business stationery etc.

Public Relations and Promotions

The ATA has an important role to play in the promotion of a positive image of its industry sectors. We are on top of mind as the leading spokesperson for the industry and the annual awards program at Toy Fair garners media interest for what's hot in the Toy Biz.

Hottest Toys for Christmas

ATA members are provided an opportunity to showcase their products to media through our Hottest Toys for Christmas event.

Held around October and leading into the industry's busiest and most important period, the event garners interest from news channels and popular morning shows.

Australian Toy Association Charity Work

The ATA is committed to helping as many Australian children in need as possible. We strongly believe that the value of play is a right for every child, regardless of their race, religion, background, or ability.

Through our initiatives, we aim to support children from low socio-economic backgrounds by providing access to toys and play experiences that bring joy, learning, creativity, and connection. Giving back to children and helping create positive childhood experiences is at the heart of what we do.

Sustainability & Circular Economy

The ATA leads a committee on sustainability where the aim is to source industry wide solutions that assist in a circular economy for toys. By working together, we believe that this is more achievable than tackling such an important issue independently. Through sustainable manufacturing and end of life recovery programs, ATA members will therefore assist in a sustainable future for generations to come.

ATA Mentor/Mentee Program

Mentoring is an invaluable way to nurture talent, benefiting both mentors and mentees involved in the relationship. The primary goal of this program is to inspire, support, and guide the emerging leaders of the Toy & Licensing industry, fostering networking opportunities across different organisations. Effective mentoring programs within organisations have been proven to boost engagement, cultivate more positive and inclusive workplace environments, and enhance leadership development. Individuals who have access to exceptional mentors (and mentees) tend to experience more career advancements, skill development, increased confidence, and improved personal and professional outcomes.

This is in harmony with ATA's mission to deliver services that elevate the performance of the toy industry.

The Australian Toy Association have teamed up with our Corporate partners to bring ATA Members commercial benefits that are exclusively offered to you.
